

We do not want you to implement any proposal that would lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law protections.

Before we entered our phone number with the Attorney General's office we were receiving 10 or more calls per day by telemarketers. After that we have not received any. My time is limited at home and I do not want people calling to sell me anything.

Leave Indiana alone!